

23S Capital 2024 Internship Program – Private Equity – São Paulo, Brazil

About 23S Capital

23S Capital is the result of a strategic partnership between Votorantim, Temasek, and the executives who managed Temasek's Brazil office from 2008 to 2022. The firm is focused on seizing opportunities in Brazil by leveraging the entrepreneurial DNA and track record of both companies. Both parties have committed to investing up to US$700 million (approximately R$3.6 billion) in growth capital across various sectors of the Brazilian economy.

Investment mandate focused on themes associated with secular trends taking place in Brazil and globally, with an emphasis on high growth and sustainable business models, managed by strong teams, throughout a variety of sectors.

For more info about 23S Capital, please check our website: <https://www.23scapital.com/>

Intern Core Functions/Responsibilities:

- Assisting the team with identifying and assessing investment opportunities in companies spanning several sectors and across different capital structures and stages (from early-stage to mature)
- Performing deal evaluation, due diligence, industry / company analysis, financial modelling, and assisting execution of new investments
- Monitoring Brazil market trends and closely tracking existing portfolio assets to support investment / divestment decisions
- Establishing and cultivating relationships with companies, corporate partners and other relevant institutions

Qualifications

- Intellectual curiosity
- Good communication, interpersonal & teamwork skills
- Strong academic credentials, ideally from business/economics/engineering background
- Advanced English and advanced Excel / Power Point
- Earliest graduation date by December 2025

How to get started: send your CV and academic transcript by March 8th to:

- contato@23scapital.com
- Email Subject: 23S Capital 2024 Internship Program – [name of applicant]