About 44 Capital:

44 Capital is an independent and unbiased investment banking firm focused on Mergers & Acquisitions, Private Placements, Financial Restructuring and Capital Markets advisory services. We add value to our clients by providing strong expertise in a wide range of industries, conflict-free advice, superior execution, and a long-standing relationship with both national and foreign corporations.

The team has extensive experience in highly complex transactions, international transactions, shareholding sales, company acquisitions, mergers, joint ventures, and fundraising. As such, the intern will work as a key part of a small deal team on strategic M&A and other assignments, having an important role in the entire deal process.

Key Responsibilities Include:

1. Financial modeling;
2. Conduct research and analysis of companies, markets and sectors across different geographies;
3. Collecting and handling data and information for the construction of analysis and presentations;
4. Supporting senior team in the preparation and revision of documents (contracts, terms, memos, etc);

Requirements:

1. Currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in Finance, Economics, Accounting, Engineering or Business (expected graduation Dec/2022-Jun/2023);
2. Eager to learn and strong interest in investment banking;
3. Solid knowledge in corporate finance and accounting;
4. Strong quantitative background and analytical skills coupled with attention to detail;
5. Top academic performance with comfort operating in an environment which values initiative, creativity, maturity, and poise;
6. Excellent verbal/written communication skills with ability to multi-task;
7. Motivation to work as a team player and contribute to a positive team culture;
8. Fluent in Portuguese/English and advanced MS Excel skills.
