

Investment Banking Internship

About Lincoln International

Founded in 1996, Lincoln International is the leading global mid-market investment bank focused on providing financial advisory services to private equity firms and corporations all around the world. With 800+ employees spread across 21 offices in 15 countries, Lincoln has closed over 403 transactions globally just in 2021.

Activities

Lincoln is seeking a new intern to join the São Paulo office who will work directly with bankers and interact with clients. Primary responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Support analysts in the preparation of financial models
- Assist in the development of marketing materials and presentations
- Perform industry and company-specific research

Qualifications

The candidate must be attending a business, economics or engineering graduate course from a top-tier university with an expected graduation date no earlier than December 2023. Excel and PowerPoint skills are required, as well as solid knowledge of finance and accounting. Fluent English is mandatory. Previous experience in Investment Banking, Private Equity or Equity Research is a plus.

Benefits

- Competitive salary (R$3.500)
- Meal ticket
- Transportation compensation
- Life insurance

Application

Please submit your CV and cover letter no later than November 15th to cjanuario@lincolninternational.com